

About Coherent Financial Advisers, LLC

What makes our team remarkable guardians?

Coherent Financial Advisers, LLC, was created from inception with this solemn purpose – to take care of people's comprehensive financial needs without external impediments.

Coherent is an independent Registered Investment Adviser (RIA) founded by CERTIFIED FINANCIAL PLANNER™ professional Thomas J. Pietrack and Chartered Financial Analyst charter holder Sargon Y. Zia. As equity partners in Coherent we answer only to you.

At Coherent we are compensated for financial planning and investment management directly and explicitly by the clients we are privileged to serve. Our interests are aligned completely with those of our clients. We adhere to the higher “fiduciary” standard, and are committed to act solely in our clients’ best interests. We are not constrained by products, securities, or services of a parent company, nor do we receive compensation for recommending securities. Your best interest is our only interest.

Co-her-ent: aesthetically ordered, logically connected, harmonious, integrated, consistent, reasoned, rational, as in...
“a coherent plan for action.”

- having a natural agreement of the parts
- related in an organized and reasonable way
- having clarity, intelligibility, understandability

Why Coherent? Because it defines us!

For some, financial planning and investment management may be just an occupation. We practice a craft to which we are deeply committed in a lifelong pursuit of excellence.
